2025-2026

Together, We Play. Together, We Win !

On 13th September, Mount Carmel College hosted its 77th annual athletic meet. The event, held at the Mount Carmel College Stadium, was a celebration of sportsmanship and athletic prowess. The college community, along with esteemed guests, came together to witness a day of thrilling competitions and performances. The chief guest, Mr. Ganesh N, an international throwball player and a recognized national referee, graced the occasion, inaugurating the meet and distributing prizes to the deserving winners.

The schedule for the day was packed with a variety of events, starting at 9:30 AM after the inauguration and team march past. The athletic meet featured a wide range of competitions, including 100m, 200m, 400m, and 800m races for both men and women, along with field events like shot put, long jump, discus throw, javelin throw, and high jump. Special events were also held for staff and former students, adding a unique and inclusive element to the day's program. The energy was palpable as students, teachers, and alumni alike participated and cheered on their peers.

The day concluded with a formal closing ceremony that included a closing march past, the chief guest's impressions, prize distribution, and a vote of thanks. Performances by captains and hostelite students also added to the festivities. The event was not just about competition but also about fostering a sense of community and team spirit, showcasing the college's commitment to both academic and athletic excellence. The annual athletic meet was a resounding success, creating lasting memories for all those who attended.
